Introduction - Education is considered as a milestone for women empowerment because it enables them to respond to the Challenges, to confront their traditional role and change their lives. As education is both an input and input of human development, educational equity will ensure enabling and entrepreneurial development. Education of women is the most powerful tool of change their position in the society. Education also reduces in equalities and functions as a means of improving their status within the family women education in India has also been a major preoccupation of both the government and civil society as educated women can play a very important role in the development of the country.

Women's empowerment can be defined to promoting women's sense of self-worth their ability to determine their own choices and their right to influence social change for themselves and others. It is closely aligned with female empowerment a fundamental human right that's also key to achieving a more peaceful, prosperous world. Women's empowerment may be defined in several ways, including accepting women's view points or making an effort to seek them, raising the status of women through education literacy, awareness, and training women's empowerment equips and allows women to make life determining decisions through the different problems in society. They may have the opportunity to redefine gender roles or other such role, which in turn may allow them more freedom to pursue desired goals. women's empowerment refers to women's ability to make strategic life choices which had been previously denied them. Empowerment of women enhances the quality and the quantity of human resources available for development. Empowerment is one of the main procedural concerns when addressing human rights and development. Businesses, Nations, Communities and Groups may benefit from the implementation of programs and policies that adopt the nation of female / women empowerment. Many world leaders and Scholars have argued that sustainable development is impossible without gender equality and women's empowerment.

Women empowerment refers to making women powerful to make them capable of deciding for themselves. Women have suffered a lot through the years at the hands of men. Empowering women means equipping them with the tools they need to have power and control over their own lives . Empowered women have independence, equal opportunities, and the ability to make strategic choices in all areas of their lives.

Defination and meaning of women’s Empowerment - kabeer-1999 – “Women’s empowerment is the process through which women acquire the ability to make strategic life choices in a context where this ability was previously denied to them.”

As per united National Development Fund for Women ( UNIFEM ) the term women’s empowerment means :

1. Acquiring knowledge and understanding of gender relations and the ways in which these relations may be changed.
2. Gaining the ability to generate choices exercise bargaining power.
3. Developing a sense of self – worth a belief in one’s ability to secure desired changes and the right to control one’s life.

The concept of women empowerment was introduced at the international women conference at. NAROIBI in 1985. The first year of New Millennium 2001 was declared as “Women Empowerment Year” Education of a women leads to a better family and ultimately an ideal, Society to a progressive nation. A progressive nation is one where all the people of the country in respective of religion, caste, creed and color are economically, culturally, politically, socially and through all thoughts are independent.

Empowerment of women particularly rural women has become an important issue in the strategies of balanced development with social Justice, Economic empowerment results in women’s ability to influence or make a right decision increase self- confidence better status and role in household etc.

Role of Education in women’s Empowerment - Women empowerment is a term which is given most importance these days women play a major role in the society but still are not given importance or position like men. women empowerment means to provide women an equal position in the society. Women are always treated inferior and men are treated as superior. The time when women started to speak up for there rights and talking decision on their own thus started the empowerment of women.

Education is the most important key to empower women. Thus women started to know about their rights and recognize their position. They started to urge for equality in all aspects. Women empowerment should be started from grass level by stopping abuse, domestic violence against women. Women empowerment in India cannot be compared with that in other countries. Women were highly respected in the vedic ages. The focus on women's education was never absent. The word „Sahadharmini“ was known from the vedic days. Sahadharmini means equal partner. It is thus very clear that women in India in ancient days enjoyed respect education and reverence.

Women's empowerment means a Psychological sense of personal control or influence and concern with actual social influence, Political power and legal rights. Education is the milestone of women empowerment because it enables them to respond to the challenges to confront their traditional role and change their life. To see the development in women education India is supposed to the upcoming superpower of the world in recent years. With the increasing change in women education. Women's education is a multi – faced factor that can be held responsible for the low rate of education among women in India. The factors like political social, economic and demographic are the back bone of low or high literacy rate. The low acceptance of girls in schools is one of the main reasons which hurdles in the way of women's liberation in India.

Education Garner - Education will garnishing women to defense against devil, marital rape sexual harassment and mental stress of society etc.

Education Manumit - Education manumit the thinking mind thoughts, power principle in various field for easy to survive and achieve know education empowerment of women brings equal status to women.

Opportunity to develop her which also means equipping women to be Education makes the sufficient in every aspect, she is not depends on her father, mother, husband.

Educated women contributes to economy - If women are qualified and earn money that means she able to develop the economy status of family nation women can help, through their work, get rid of problems like India mortality rate, high rates of gender violence and other crime against women female feticide, implement family planning and other schemes etc.

Education allows to take decision - As education opens ways to take decision their choice whether it is relates to life style, career, eating, life partner, job, etc. Education teach to learn to learn what is wrong and right. Education push to stay own feet.

Education stay away from hurdles - Education gives equal rights and Politically culturally gender, religiously manner. She will bring equal status that is the reason to fostering both national and international integration.

Education is part of the solution to environmental problems - people with more education are more likely to use energy and water more efficiently and to recycle household waste.

Education of women also plays an important role in teaching her expression of feeling or through effective communication which can solve disputes and adjustment problems of any level

Education saves mother's lives - Many women still die because of complications during pregnancy and childbirth. Education can prevent these deaths. There is a positive relationship between education and women empowerment women in the modern hi – take society which is moving very fast under the shadow of population explosion, corruption, conflicts and chaos can mold, the personality of the adolescent and youth in a proper direction and perspective, provided the women are themselves in power. In order to promote women's empowerment, it is necessary to create an environment that will allow women to participate in educational programs. Empowerment of women aims at striving towards acquiring higher literacy level and education, better health care for women and their children increased participation in economic, equal ownership of productive resources and commercial sectors improved standard of living and to achieve self-reliance, self – respect and self confidence among women.
